Intersection Improvements on US-72

The Alabama Department of Transportation (ALDOT) is proposing to install a reduced conflict intersection (RCI) at the intersection of US-72 and Cambridge Lane just east of Athens, Limestone County, Alabama. Information about the project is available to the public for review and comment. Your comments may be provided by US mail, email, or online as described below. Comments for the proposed project must be submitted by October 6, 2023.

Project Description

ALDOT is proposing the installation of a reduced conflict intersection (RCI) at the intersection of US-72 and Cambridge Lane just east of Athens, Alabama. The area experiences high traffic speeds and crash incidents. Improvements at this intersection will provide a smoother travel experience and will benefit the traveling public by providing a safer intersection for those using US-72 and Cambridge Lane.
